The meeting was attended by about 200 citizens, mostly taxpayers. Bryon Anderson called the meeting to order, and William E. Heddy was elected chairman and Charles V. Kent secretary. Speches were made by H. W. Groser and Messrs, Ryan, Todd. Fulton, Rosenstein and others. A resolution in favor of giving a liberal franchise to the trolley company was adopted, and a series of resolutions censuring the Highway Commissioners was tabled, it being the opinion of those in the meeting that the Commissioners tried to look after the interests of the town in their transactions with the trolley company. The trouble was that the Commissioners were a little too exacting in their demands. A committee of three was appointed to confer with the Commissioners and the trolley company to learn the differences between them, and to report at an adjourned meeting to be neld at the same place next Monday evening.

TARY HACKETT OF THE Y. M. C. A., AND ARE SURE TO AROUSE MUCH RE-

The first of a series of men's mass-meetings under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held to-morrow afternoon in Music Hall, in Warburton-ave., near Dock-st. It service of unusual interest to the young men of Yonkers. The Rev. Charles N. Cate, of Illinois, who is a powerful evangelistic speaker, will conduct three of these services in the city in the present month. His subject for to-morrow will be "Time's Greatest Temples; or, for Building Eternity." The Rev. Mr. Cate uses striking and appropriate stereopticon views to illustrate his discourses, and he has been successful in conducting these kind of services in St. Louis and in other places. Secretary Haskett, who planned the services and secured the Rev. Mr. Cate, believes he has a treat for the young men of the city. Novello Quartet, composed of local singers, will sing several selections during the afternoon. Miss Emma Crowther, the solo contralto, will sing, and her solo will be illustrated by pictures on the canvas. There will be a general song service commencing at 3:30 o'clock, which will be led by William P. Hickey. Secretary Haskett holds to the idea that association work is for young men by young men, and consequently these services will be for men only. No charge for admission will be made, and a cordial and earnest invitation is extended to all the men of the city to be present at this service. One of the reasons for Mr. Haskett's success in his work among the young men of the city is that he is constantly planning something new for them, and at the same time something interesting. When he took hold of the association about eighteen months ago, ne found the interest in the work not what it should have been. There were but ninety-two names on the roll. He went to work with zeal, and to-day the result is seen. The association has a membership of 500. The new building in Main-st.

is handsomely fitted up. To interest the young men, Mr. Haskett started the experiment last year of opening the building on Saturday night during the summer to all young men of the city. Many came, saw its advantages, and ultimately became members of the association. Mr. Haskett also made a special feature of the Sunday afternoon religious services which have been held at 4 o'clock in the gymnasium. Some of the best speakers in the country have been secured to come to Yonkers and address the men of the city. The meeting tomorrow is the outgrowth of making a specialty of these meet-

Lovers of tennis are looking forward with pleasure to the games which are scheduled to be played to-day on the grounds of the Yonkers Lawn Tennis Club, in the Palisade-ave, extension, between the home club and the Sleepy Hollow Tennis Club, of Tarrytown. The first day's play in the interclub tournament was on last Saturday on the courts of the Sleepy Hollow club, and the Yonkers club won only two points to five points won by the opposing club. The home club hopes to win to-day's matches. The last games of the series will be played on August 15, on the courts of the Sleepy Hollow club.

Andrew Deyo, Thomas E. Booth and Benjamin G. Westcott, the Entertainment Committee of the Palisade Boat Club, encouraged by the success of the fiannel hop given at the clubhouse in Glenwood, two weeks ago, have decided to have another one this evening. The committee has taken pains this time to have the members notified early of the event and a large attendance is expected. The social affairs of this club have become popular, and it is expected that there will be a number of out-of-town guests present.

The Staten Island Cricket Club and the Murray Hill Athletic Club teams will play ball at Livingston to-day.

There is little possibility of a parade or contests between the firemen at the county fair this year. The North Shore Fire Department, which is the largest of those on the island, has practically decided not to join in the contests. The firemen have taken umbrage at the manner in which prizes were disposed of last year. The firemen who looked pretty in blue coats and white duck trousers got the prizes, and excited the Jealousy of the hard workers, who appeared in their working uniforms. Therefore they declare that if duck trousers secure the prizes, they will not compete.

The Swedish Methodists, who come to the camp meeting here in large numbers, are expected to arrive in full force to-night. Among the leading ministers who will be in charge may be mentioned the Rev. H. W. Eklund, of Emanuel Swedish Church, Brooklyn; the Rev. Mr. Neilson and the Rev. Mr. Cederberg, of Brooklyn, and the Rev. Mr. Swedish and the camp-meetings here.

In these days of oppressive heat the good judgment of the founders of the Sing Sing Camp-Meeting in selecting a site is highly commended. The high elevation of the grounds makes the air pure and fresh, and on the hottest days the leaves of the trees in the grove are always in motion from some vagrant breeze that sweeps through the grounds and keeps the temperature down to the comfort point. Another attractive feature of the piace is the hearty welcome that awaits all comers. Dr. Bowdish makes an ideal minister in charge, and the arrangements throughout are excellent.
